“WE MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN”

Life—so they say, is but a game and some let it slip away. Love—like the autumn sun, should be dying but it's only just begun. Dreams—so they say, are for fools and some let them drift away. Peace—like the silent dove, should be flying but it's only just begun. And all the years will come and go and take us up—always up. We may never pass this way again.

DEDICATION

We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams.
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams;
World-losers and world foresakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams.
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.

With wonderful deathless duties
We build up the world's great cities,
And out of a fabulous story,
We fashion an empire's glory.
One man with a dream, at pleasure,
Shall go forth and conquer a crown,
And thee with a kingdom down.

A breath of our inspiration,
Is the life of each generation;
A wondrous thing of our dreaming
Unearthly, impossible seeming—
The soldier, the king, and the peasant,
Are working together in one,
And our dream shall become their present,
And their work in the world be done.

But we, with our dreaming and singing,
Ceaseless and sorrowless be!
The glory about us clinging
Of the glorious futures we see,
Our souls with high music ringing;
Oh, Men it must be
That we dwell in our dreaming and singing,
A little apart from thee.

The class of 1937 is proud to dedicate the Bulldog to Our Dreams . . . of the past . . . the present . . . and most important the future. Our dreams no matter big or small, simple or complicated, will help shape, not only our future, but also the world's, and will hopefully make it a better place to

A black and white photograph of a person walking away on a forest path. The person is in the lower center of the frame, walking away from the viewer down a dirt path that leads into a dense forest. The path is flanked by trees and foliage, with sunlight filtering through the leaves, creating a dappled light effect on the ground. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
We don't see just where we're going
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears, and all the years
Will come and go,
And take us up, always up.
We may never pass this way again.

Those were the good ole' days,
So they say,
When we were so young,
And everything was a new experience.
But times have changed,
And so have we.
But there are still things
That are new experiences,
For that's one great part
Of being young.

Like Columbus in the olden days,
We must gather all our courage.
Sail our ships out on the open sea,
Cast away our fears and all the years
Will come and go,
And take us up—always up.
We may never pass this way again.

FACULTY

The senior class of 1977 would like to dedicate this song to all faculty and administration for all the help and understanding you have given to us and we in return hope that as you have watched us grow throughout the years, we have become someone you would be proud of.

Those school days of telling tales
And biting nails are gone.
But in my mind,
I know they will still live on and on.
But how do we thank someone
Who has taken us from crayons to perfume?
It isn't easy, but I'll try.
If you wanted the sky
I'd write across the sky in letters
That would soar a thousand feet high,
To Sir, with Love.

The time has come for closing books,
And long last looks must end.
And as I leave
I know that I am leaving my best friend
Who taught me right from wrong,
And weak from strong.
That's a lot to learn.
What can I give you in return?
If you wanted the moon
I'd try to make a start,
But I would rather let you give my heart.
To Sir, with Love.

Those awkward years have hurried by.
Why did they fly?
Why is it, Sir?
Children grow up to be people one day.
What takes the place of climbing trees,
And dirty knees in the world outside?
What is there for you I can buy?
If you wanted the world,
I'd surround it with a wall,
I'd scrawl these words
Ten feet tall—
To Sir, with Love.

A black and white photograph of a park path lined with trees, leading to a body of water with a lifeguard stand in the distance.

On the road of experience
I'm trying to find my own way
Sometimes I wish that I could fly away
When I think that I'm moving Suddenly things stand still I'm afraid because I think they always will.
And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
And sometimes I'm deep in despair.

A misty, sepia-toned photograph of a person standing on a rocky outcrop in a forest, looking out over a river with a small waterfall. The scene is atmospheric and somewhat somber, with bare trees and a hazy background. The person is a small figure in the distance, adding a sense of solitude to the landscape.

Waiting for something
With my life, I am waiting for something
Reminded by the current in the river
Or nudged by the wind
Somewhere, toppling slowly
Toward me, swings a beginning
Or an end.
Once on the hills where I passed
Every brush was blazing.
I could have stopped,
But like a trance my walk went on,
And I left those chances,
One by one.
All of those beginnings—one of ten Surely I should have stopped and turned
They are lost now, but something
Is coming toward me.
I know it not for others
Not aside, not maybe,
But central.

EIGHTH

CHILDSONG By Neil Diamond

Weeping sky,
We bring the sun,
To make you glad,
And fill you with the day.
Quiet tree,
We have the wind,
We make you dance,
And fill you with our play,
And you shall be glad
And you shall dance
And you shall come
To hear our song
And learn the tune
Before it fades away.

Tomorrow Belongs to the Children

Let us bring love out of hiding
And live like tomorrow is now,
So let us be friends like the children,
There's something to learn from them all;
For they know the secret of living,
They live like tomorrow is now!
For tomorrow belongs to the children,
The children belong to us all.

MUSIC

Hear the band, hear the band
Won't you let the music take you,
Hear the band.
Let this night go on forever;
Don't you ever stop the music,
Let your spirit set you free.
Now hear the band, hear the band
You can sing and stomp your feet,
And clap your hands.
These few moments we share together.
Then I'll play for you.

VICA YOUNG AMERICA AT WORK

Members of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America are young men and women in high school and post-secondary vocational trade, industrial, technical and health education programs. In shop and classroom, they learn skills for today's world. In VICA, they prepare for responsible citizenship.

VICA develops leadership through participation in educational, vocational, civic, recreational and social activities. It helps students establish realistic vocational goals, acquire respect for the dignity of work and attain a purposeful life. The VICA club emphasizes and promotes high standards in trade ethics, workmanship, scholarship and safety.

VICA Members Believe In:

- The Dignity of Work
- The American Way of Life
- Education
- Fair Play
- Satisfaction Achieved by Good Work
- High Moral and Spiritual Standards

Ring bearers: Kristen Setterberg, Troy Vagle.

Homecoming started off this year with the powder puff football game. The Senior-Junior team overtook the Sophomore-Freshman team 16-0. John Haines, Eric Meyer, and Scott Hoiseth were coaches of the two teams. Thursday, Oct. 30, the variety show of 14 acts was presented. Joan Vanderpool took 1st place for her dance routine to "Horn Pipe." Second place went to the cheerleaders with help from the senior football players. The skit "The Bus" won third place. Friday, Queen Marty and King Lyle, 1975 Homecoming Royalty, crowned Joleen Lieser and Danny Kalkbrenner queen and king. Friday night the Paynesville Bulldogs were defeated 12-6 in overtime by the Rocori Spartans. Saturday, Oct. 2, was the close of the 1976 Homecoming activities, highlighted by the Homecoming dance.

Snofest '77

This picture is white due to a blizzard in the lunch room during the dance. It's awfully hard to depict the people, but if you look close enough (by sticking your nose in the book), you will probably see nobody. Now don't you feel like a complete fool for sticking your nose in this book looking for something that was never there. Now that is exactly how we felt trying to find something to put on this page. Due to insanity and no Sno-fest activities, this page has been cancelled. We're going crazy, crazy, crazy, crazy

Star of the Year!

Remember the first time you high jumped?
 Remember the time you smashed your knee
 in the Glenwood hurdle?
 Remember when we met Tex?
 Remember watching the pitching machine for the first time?
 Remember when someone shook up their creme soda on the bus?
 Remember the time someone filled New London's track team's shoes full of grass?
 Remember the District track meet with the boys?
 Remember the Eden Valley-Watkins boys' track team?
 Remember Jay Weber's girlfriend?
 Remember getting lapped in the mile relay?
 Remember Mr. Wittgraf's neat Fidel
 Castro hair cut?
 Remember the sore leg muscles and the strawberry ointment?
 Remember what you did after the track
 meets?
 But most of all—
 Remember, no spikes on the bus!!!!!!

Christmas pep assembly

Tammi,

Well, It sure is strange writing to you in a yearbook instead of a letter. It is strange not having you sign my yearbook. I really don't know what to say - it's not the ~~same~~ same. We really didn't get all that many people to sign. Everybody told me that they wanted to sign, but either Roxxy had it or someone already was signing it. Roxxy and I both had conniptions when we couldn't find it. She said "Laurie, get Tammi's YB." I said "No, you get it - I don't have it." Well, the reason I didn't have it was because I got mine screwed up with yours and left yours home. (I brought them both home without even thinking about it.) I got to go, catch ya' later. Well it is later now. Hey I really don't know what to say! I wish you were here. If I would have been able to get all the people to sign as ~~a~~ asked me I'd have to buy a tablet! (I'm not kidding)

Well I better go (w/b ha!)
Love you!

Laurie

-Tammi -
Well, how's everything in Montana? Great, I hope! Well, I suppose I can't say the usual stuff except to have a great summer and take it E-2 on the guys! See ya around when you come back to good ol' P'ville to visit! Take it E-2 and don't drink too much!
Friends always,
Lois
Remember that noon hour when you guys were acting like Sybil and doing cartwheels??

Tammi -
Hope you like it where you are. Have a great summer. Miss you.

Tammi

Comme-

Hi! This is weird, signing this book and not having you here saying you better write more! Well I write alot this year o.k?? Remember the times we used to go cross country skiing - you were so funny you got into more funny positions that I have ever seen. Remember going to the beach? Remember that little Bang girl and the rest of those kids were playing gay! Weird!
and all the times we hit the cupboard. You know which ones! I want to come out and see you so bad this summer. I have the money and all, know it is just up to Big Daddy!
Pray that he lets me come!

We had fun in Bus. Math didn't use, we tried everything to let him let us sit by each other!

Remember last summer when we used to always go down to Van's or your house by the Couch! Fart! Fart! We were CRAZY! I still have toilet paper! when you come back well have to munch some down! or how ever you want to say it!
Sundays aren't the same around here without you! Let me tell you that!
We played First State last night and guess what we WON! I was so happy!!! Everyone was! Well see you this summer or next December hopefully this summer

Ya! Theresa
Love Always and Miss

Remember the cow alert!
and muddy field + camping trip! and oh
love ya!!!!

MEMORY

That Man is a Success Who Has Loved Well Laughed Often and Loved Much

On the morning of December 4 there was a tragic car accident which claimed the life of a student at P.H.S. This student was loved by many friends. He had a certain way of making you feel special and warm by his friendly greeting or just his smile. He will be long remembered by many a friend. For those students who did know Pat, they will cherish the memories he left behind and they will look back at those memories and laugh and smile and cry.

PAT NOONAN

DECEMBER 5, 1958—DECEMBER 4, 1976

WE MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

The time has come to leave you.
We will remember all the times
We had together,
Smiling all the way,
Keeping in mind
That the past is gone,
And the future has come.

Kathy Paul

- Tammi -
Long time no see! Well how's Montana. Do ya get to come back to P'ville this summer? It sure is going to be weird without you next year cheering. I hope you found alot of friends in Montana. It was pretty nice of those guys to buy you a book so everybody could sign it. I hope to see ya when ya come up! I wish you lotsa luck and Take care of yourself too! Bye Now!

Love,
Linda

Tammi -
Too Bad you're not here to sign my book.
It seems funny that your book is here and you ~~are~~ aren't (Sick!) well, you'll have to show everybody up there who we are.
beautiful faces! We're so good. Your cheerleading picture is really good! Well, I'll see ya when you come down. Ok? Miss ya lots.
History just isn't the same without you there! Well, take care of the guys up there.

Friends
always,

Sandy

~~Jami~~ Jami
in that can't. The some to there. How do you like ~~be~~ were you moved I let you would rather be here. See you tell this summer if you come up. You come up.
You come up.
Dan

more in letters
you come down
fun guy you will get good write summer and hope party lots of people and hope down most at our house to you. When you come time I write you something Tammie the about got a house and will you get what you move and good luck.
